

Σπουδές Ιατρικής - Ουγγαρία

The University of Pecs' medical school in Hungary organizes monthly online webinars where participants can hear a presentation about their programmes and ask questions directly to members of the Admissions Office or to current students.

Their next webinar will take place on 12 February 2026.

You can find the other upcoming webinar dates here. Please feel free to share this information with interested students.

If your students have any questions about Pecs, please ask them to email or call me

Regards, Anna
